Our Suppliers

We are committed to using local suppliers wherever possible. But what do we mean by “local”? We try to make what we can in house – for example our bread rolls and our crowdie. We then aim for within 20 miles, if possible, thereafter within Highland, Moray and the Islands. Aberdeenshire, Argyll and Perthshire come next and finally the rest of Scotland, followed by the rest of the UK.

Food suppliers (in no particular order):

John Munro & Sons, Beaulieu who source from local Highland farms
Corner on the Square, Beaulieu for Orkney butter and various local chutneys
Cullisse Scottish Highland rapeseed oil
Greengrocers, Beaulieu who sell fruit and veg from local farms
Robertson’s Farm Shop, Beaulieu for fruit and veg
Black Isle Berries/Ryefield Farm Shop, Tore for fruit, veg and jams
Black Isle Dairy for the whole milk for our crowdie
Highland Fine Cheeses, Tain
Connage Dairy, Ardersier
Left Coast Culture vegan cheese
The Bakery, Inverness (for the days we don’t make our own bread)
Williamsons Food Service
Rising Roots microgreens

Drink suppliers

We like to stay local as much as possible when we buy our drinks too. Almost all of our drinks are from the Highlands, Islands and Moray, including vodka and rum. Our soft drinks are from Summerhouse in Aberdeenshire, tonic from the same maker but known as Walter Gregor Tonic

Non-food suppliers

We love to buy local. And we love to repurpose, both in the event space and our apartments. That includes cutlery, glasses, some of the crockery and chairs. Our suppliers include:
Iain Marr Antiques, Beaulieu
Old Town Curiosities, Inverness
The Merchant, Inverness
Architectural Salvage, Daviot
Auldearn Antiques
Castle Gallery, Inverness
Campbell’s of Beaulieu
The Old School, Beaulieu
Oops a Daisy florist, Beaulieu
Morisons Ironmongers, Beaulieu
Castle Gallery, Inverness
Cromarty Pottery
Tain Pottery
Highland Fine Soaps
